Providing your information to Michel & Associates, P.C. for purposes of it possibly representing you in a future lawsuit alone DOES NOT create an attorney client relationship. Additionally, in seeking information concerning the difficulties you have had obtaining a CL, we are not representing a lawsuit will ever be filed on your behalf.

By accepting your information, we are not expressing an opinion about the merits of your position or any case or legal matter in which you may be involved. Because we are not representing you, but are simply providing general information, we cannot advise you regarding your interests. We encourage you to consult with another attorney regarding your case now. The hiring of an attorney is an important decision that should not be based solely upon website communications or advertisements.

There are strict limitations on the time within which individuals may file lawsuits and/or claims. Failure to initiate legal proceedings within these time limitations will FOREVER BAR YOU FROM SEEKING REDRESS OR RECOVERY. We are not providing our opinion as to the date by which you must file any lawsuit or claim, nor what the applicable time limitations may be in your matter. Delay or failure to contact an attorney now could prevent you from pursuing any matter you may have in the future. So, if you are interested in legal assistance in obtaining a CL now, we STRONGLY suggest you contact another attorney.
